

lawyers are as honest as Senators Johnson, Hoagland and Chambers and our attorneys in this staff, and so there has been a question on this legal section and I am still going to support the seat belt law and I am going to work for it but there are serious questions and there always has been on this particular section. And I guess that I would have to say two things, either amend Senator Johnson's down to 1 percent or 2 percent liability or go for the Haberman amendment.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Senator DeCamp, do you wish to speak on the Haberman amendment?

SENATOR DECAMP: (Microphone not activated.)

SENATOR LABEDZ: Senator Marsh, do you wish to speak on the Haberman amendment?

SENATOR MARSH: I strongly oppose, Senator Labeledz, and members of the Legislature, this move to put us out of compliance in the State of Nebraska and, Senator Chambers, as one who is speaking strongly for the safety and not in any way supportive of this bill because of what the automobile dealers have done, will say, or what they manufacture, I am one who takes offense at what you have said. I feel that safety is important for all of us and it is important for the future of our state. I highly oppose Senator Haberman's amendment or Senator Haberman-Chambers amendment, however it is said.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Senator Higgins, do you wish to speak on the Haberman-Chambers amendment? Senator Higgins.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Thank you, Madam Chairman. I apologize for the delay. As far as what I used to call the young Turks, the attorneys here in the Legislature, you notice I no longer call them the young Turks. That is because they are all four years older now, they are not that young. Senator Chambers says so they are old turkeys now. I don't think anybody in this Legislature would ever accuse Marge Higgins of having stood up and agreed with an attorney yet on anything. In fact, I remember one time when one of the attorneys stood up and said, I think this bill or amendment is constitutionally suspect and I told him, when you walk through those Chamber doors wearing a black robe I will accept your judgment as a Supreme Court Justice. So that
